

"The largest independent talent management organization in the world"

Professional Qualifications:

PAUL W. HATZ

Senior Career Consultant

Paul's professional background includes over 30 years in the field of human resources with several fortune 500 companies. His experience covers all aspects of human resources staffing, organization and workforce planning, performance management, employee relations, and employee development.

Prior to joining Career Partners International Paul held a variety of professional and management positions with Peabody Energy, Sverdrup (now Jacobs Engineering), Citicorp, McDonnell Douglas (now Boeing) and ITT Aetna. Paul worked with a broad range of employees from the C suite to operating levels and with a variety of external consultants in areas of job search, employee assessment, employee surveys, training, workforce planning, compensation, and benefits. In addition to Paul's corporate experience, he has also worked as an independent consultant on a number of HR assignments including counseling executives in career transition.

Paul's comprehensive experience in assessment, recruitment, compensation, and placement gives him a solid understanding of the variables so fundamentally important to a successful job search. This understanding along with Paul's ability to apply it to the needs of each individual client make him an excellent source of support, counsel, and guidance for executives in career transition.

Paul and his family live in St. Louis where he earned his bachelor's degree in business from Washington University.
